

Indiana Department of Education

SUPPORTING STUDENT SUCCESS

School Safety Specialist Academy Trainings 2010-2011

A menu of upcoming School Safety Specialist Academy trainings is listed below. School Safety Specialists are required to attend two days of training during the 2010-2011 school year to maintain their certification, and each day listed below counts towards that re-certification.

Many of the trainings below are available for all educators, law enforcement, and their school safety partners. Please forward this information to your local first responders or other personnel who may benefit from attending. Please note; lodging will be provided only for certified School Safety Specialists traveling 75 miles or more for the October 26-27, 2010 and the April 20-21, 2011 trainings.

September 14, New Castle: “School Safety: Focusing on Fundamentals” presented by Ken Trump. Program is co-sponsored by the New Castle Community School Corporation, and is available to all educators, law enforcement, and school safety partners. Topics include meaningful safety strategies during tight budget times, and latest new trends in school emergency planning. Registration and additional information is available here: www.doe.in.gov/issas/docs/New_Castle.pdf

September 15, Bloomington: “School Safety: Focusing on Fundamentals” presented by Ken Trump (repeat of September 14 program). Program is co-sponsored by the Monroe County Community School Corporation, and is available to all educators, law enforcement, and school safety partners. Topics include meaningful safety strategies during tight budget times, and latest new trends in school emergency planning. Registration and additional information is available here: www.doe.in.gov/issas/docs/Bloomington.pdf

September 16, New Albany: “School Safety: Focusing on Fundamentals” presented by Ken Trump (repeat of September 14 program). Program is available to all educators, law enforcement, and school safety partners. Topics include meaningful safety strategies during tight budget times, and latest new trends in school emergency planning. Registration and additional information is available here: www.doe.in.gov/issas/docs/New_Alban.pdf

September 22-24, Indianapolis: Fall Law Enforcement Conference. This training is sponsored by the United States Attorney’s Office and is only available for sworn law enforcement. Topics include counter-terrorism, characteristics of an armed gunman, the impact of hate groups, and many more. Registration and additional information is available here: www.doe.in.gov/issas/docs/10_LECCFlyer-Reg_fillable.pdf

October 5, Indianapolis: “School Security and Safety: Trends and Tabletops” presented by Paul Timm. Program is co-sponsored by Ingersoll Rand Security Technologies, and is available to all educators, law enforcement, and school safety partners. Topics include lessons learned from past incidents, key components of an effective security program, addressing vulnerabilities, and no-cost tabletop exercises to improve safety for your students. Registration and additional information will soon be available here: www.doe.in.gov/issas/regionaltraining.html

October 6, Kokomo: “Internet Social Networking: What Schools Need to Know” presented by Chuck Cohen and Steve DeBrot. Program is co-sponsored by the United States Attorney’s Office, and is available to all educators, law enforcement, and school safety partners. Topics include sexting, cyberbullying, cell phones, and immersive online environments. Registration and additional information is available here: www.doe.in.gov/issas/docs/PSCregistration2010.pdf

October 8, Connersville: “Defuse and Manage Problem Students and Confrontational Parents: School and Police Tactics That Work” presented by John More. Program is co-sponsored by the East Central Educational Service Center, and is available to all educators, law enforcement, and school safety partners. Topics include tactics to obtain student and parent cooperation, and how to gain quick and quiet advantage over disruptive students. Registration and additional information is available here: www.doe.in.gov/issas/docs/ECSC_Flyer_and_Registration.pdf

October 26-27, Indianapolis: School Safety Specialist Advanced Academy. This training is co-sponsored by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and is available to certified school safety specialists, law enforcement, and their guests. Topics include the role of FBI in school safety, bomb threats, bullying prevention, and more. Lodging will be provided only for certified School Safety Specialists traveling 75 miles each direction. Registration and additional information is available here: www.doe.in.gov/issas/advancedtraining.html

November 10, Charlestown: “Internet Social Networking: What Schools Need to Know” presented by Chuck Cohen and Steve DeBrot (repeat of October 6 program). Program is co-sponsored by the United States Attorney’s Office, and is available to all educators, law enforcement, and school safety partners. Topics include sexting, cyberbullying, cell phones, and immersive online environments. Registration and additional information is available here: www.doe.in.gov/issas/docs/PSCregistration2010.pdf

December 7-8, Northern Indiana: “Reid Interviewing and Interrogations” presented by Joseph Buckley. This class will be hosted in two locations in Northern Indiana during early December. Topics include verbal/nonverbal cues of deception, and how to develop and phrase conversation that leads to admission and cooperation. Registration and additional information will be sent to all School Safety Specialists via email, and posted here once the details are finalized: www.doe.in.gov/issas/regionaltraining.html

April 20-21, 2011, Indianapolis: School Safety Specialist Advanced Academy. This training is only available to certified school safety specialists, law enforcement, and their guests. Topics and agenda TBA. Lodging will be provided for non-commuters traveling 75 miles each direction. Registration and additional information will be made available in January 2011.

 Basic Training registration is also available for new School Safety Specialists. These forms are available online: www.doe.in.gov/issas/basictraining.html *****